Manage your cookies

You have two options for controlling cookies on this Nordea site:

1. Opt-out of marketing cookies

2. Browser settings (option to completely block all cookies)

Opt-out of marketing cookies:

You can control cookies within the marketing cookie category by accessing the cookie panel at the bottom of this page. The marketing cookies are opt-in by default to provide a better user experience when browsing our site. As an example our video player and podcast component relies on functionality and cookies set by third parties such as YouTube and SoundCloud.

Opting-out of marketing cookies will prevent all communication and functionality from the corresponding tools. This means as a users you will no longer be able to benefit from the functionality these tools provide. Navigate to the cookie panel at the bottom of this page for a complete overview of the cookie categories and the cookies within them. If you chose to opt-out of marketing cookies you can always opt-in again by navigating to the same cookie panel on the bottom of this page.

Browser settings:

You can set or amend your web browser controls to accept or reject cookies. If you choose to reject cookies, you may still use our websites and some services.

Please be aware that restricting cookies may impact the functionality of a website. Many of the interactive functions offered by websites are dependent on cookies and disabling or blocking cookies can prevent these services from working or reduce their usefulness.

Different web browsers may use different methods for managing cookies. Please follow the instructions below, from the web browser manufacturers directly, to configure your browser settings.
